RECRUITMENT NOTICE FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACT (CJA) TRIAL ATTORNEY PANEL

THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE ACT TRIAL ATTORNEY PANEL

Pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act of 1964, as amended (18 U.S.C. § 3006A) (the “CJA”), the United States District Court for the Central District of California has adopted a plan for providing representation for any person financially unable to obtain adequate representation in certain circumstances. The plan provides for the establishment of a panel (the “CJA Trial Attorney Panel”) of private attorneys who are eligible and willing to be appointed to provide representation under the CJA. The Court is currently seeking applications from private attorneys interested in serving as members of the CJA Trial Attorney Panel and to be appointed to provide representation under the CJA. CJA panel members may serve in the Western (downtown LA), Eastern (Riverside), or Southern (Santa Ana) Divisions.

ELIGIBILITY

Attorneys who serve on the CJA Trial Attorney Panel must be members in good standing of the State Bar of California and of the federal bar of this district, and have demonstrated experience in, and knowledge of, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, the Federal Rules of Evidence, the Sentencing Guidelines, and the Local Rules of Court. Qualifications for CJA panel attorneys are determined by the Court. Generally, the Court considers the amount and substantive area of state court experience (strong criminal law experience required), and state and federal court trial experience (five federal trials preferred). Specific qualifications are contained in the Procedures for the CJA Trial Attorney Panel for the Central District of California.

All posted notices are also available on the Court’s public website at www.cacd.uscourts.gov.

While foreign language ability is not a requirement for membership on the CJA Trial Attorney Panel, foreign language skills are particularly beneficial in the representation of indigent defendants in the Central District of California.

For applicants who meet the qualifications for panel membership generally, but who lack sufficient trial and courtroom experience, a mentorship program may be available. The selected attorney will be assigned to work with an experienced federal criminal defense attorney from the Office of the Federal Public Defender or CJA Panel on one or more cases. Unfortunately, there are no funds available to compensate the selected attorneys for their time and expenses. This program is designed to provide the opportunity to obtain trial and other federal criminal litigation experience with expert mentoring and supervision.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested persons should complete the application, which can be found on the Court's website at <http://www.cacd.uscourts.gov/attorneys/cja/application-membership-cja-trial-attorney-panel>. Applications will be reviewed by the CJA Trial Attorney Panel Defense Advisory Committee, which will make recommendations to the Court for approval. Applications and supporting documents should be submitted to the Court's CJA office at Cja@cacd.uscourts.gov by June 1, 2017.
