Re: United States v. Weber, Case No. 25-cv-9149
Joinder Letter of Multi-State Amicus Curiae Brief in Support of Motions to Dismiss (Dkt. 83)

To the Honorable David O. Carter,

The State of Nevada submits this letter to join the amicus curiae brief that was previously submitted by the States of Maryland, Minnesota, Arizona, Colorado, Delaware, Hawai‘i, Illinois, Maine, Michigan, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, Oregon, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Washington (“the Amici States”). See Dkt. 83.

Like the Amici States, Nevada has a strong interest in this case because the federal government has also demanded its statewide voter registration list with all fields. Additionally, since the Amici States filed their brief, Nevada’s Secretary of State has also been sued in his official capacity over his refusal to disclose Nevada residents’ sensitive personal data. See United States v. Aguilar, No. 25-cv-728 (D. Nev.). More generally, Nevada also has the same constitutional interests in preserving its authority over election procedures and the same statutory and policy interests in safeguarding its residents' most sensitive data and ensuring its residents' confidence, trust, and participation in the electoral process.

For the reasons articulated in the Amici States' brief, the complaint should be dismissed.

Respectfully Submitted,

AARON D. FORD
Attorney General of Nevada
