3 IN RE: TOYOTA MOTOR CORP.
4 UNINTENDED ACCELERATION
5 MARKETING, SALES PRACTICES, AND 6 PRODUCTS LIABILITY LITIGATION

Case No. 8:10ML02151 JVS (FMOx)

STIPULATED
PROTECTIVE ORDER

7 This document relates to:

8 ALL CASES

9 WHEREAS, to facilitate the production and receipt of information during 10 discovery in the above-captioned litigation (“the Litigation”), the parties agree and 11 stipulate, through their respective counsel, to the entry of the following Protective 12 Order for the protection of Confidential and Highly Confidential Materials (as defined 13 herein) that may be produced or otherwise disclosed during the course of this 14 Litigation by any party or non-party. The Court has been fully advised in the premises 15 and has found good cause for its entry.

16 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the terms and conditions of this 17 Protective Order shall govern the handling of discovery materials in the Litigation:

18 1. Applicability of Order: This Order does not and will not govern any 19 trial proceedings in this Litigation, but will otherwise be applicable to and govern the 20 handling of documents, depositions, deposition exhibits, interrogatory responses, 21 responses to requests for admissions, responses to requests for production of 22 documents, and all other discovery obtained pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil 23 Procedure by or from a party in connection with the Litigation (this information 24 hereinafter referred to as “Discovery Material”). As used herein, “Producing Party” or 25 “Disclosing Party” shall refer to the parties to this action that give testimony or 26 produce documents or other information, and “Receiving Party” shall refer to the 27 parties to this action that receive such information.

28 2. Designation of Material: Any Producing Party may designate Discovery Material that is in their possession, custody or control to be produced to a Receiving Party as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” under the terms of this

1 Order if the Producing Party in good faith reasonably believes that such Discovery
2 Material contains non-public, confidential material as defined in sections 4 and 5 3 below, (hereinafter “Confidential Material” or “Highly Confidential Material”).

4 3. Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for 5 Protection. Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for 6 protection under this Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific 7 material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. Mass, indiscriminate, or 8 routinized designations are prohibited.

9 4. Confidential Material: For purposes of this Order, Confidential 10 Material is any information that a party believes in good faith to be confidential or 11 sensitive information, including, but not limited to, trade secrets, research, design, 12 development, financial, technical, marketing, planning, personal, or commercial 13 information, as such terms are used in Rule 26(c)(1)(G) of the Federal Rules of Civil 14 Procedure and any applicable case law interpreting Rule 26(c)(1)(G) or the former 15 Rule 26(c)(7).

16 5. Highly Confidential Material: For purposes of this Order, Highly 17 Confidential Material is any Confidential Material as defined in paragraph 4 which 18 also includes non-public product design and testing information or extremely 19 sensitive, highly confidential, non-public information, consisting either of trade 20 secrets or proprietary or other highly confidential business, financial, regulatory, or 21 strategic information (including information regarding business plans, technical data, 22 and non-public designs), the disclosure of which would create a substantial risk of 23 competitive or business injury to the Producing Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 24 this Order shall not apply to Toyota computer source code and related materials, or 25 similar highly sensitive materials requiring special protection, which shall be subject 26 to additional forms of protection pursuant to further order of this Court.

27 6. Designating Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material:
28 The designation of Discovery Material as Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material for purposes of this Order shall be made in the following

1 manner:

2 a. Documents: In the case of documents or other materials (apart from 3 depositions or other pre-trial testimony), designation shall be made by affixing 4 the legend “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” to each page containing any 5 Confidential or Highly Confidential Material, respectively.

6 b. Deposition and Other Proceedings: In the case of depositions or 7 other pre-trial testimony, designation of the portion of the transcript (including 8 exhibits) which contains Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material 9 shall be made (i) by a statement to such effect on the record during the 10 proceeding in which the testimony is received, or (ii) by written notice served 11 on counsel of record in this Litigation within thirty (30) business days after the 12 receipt of the draft transcript of such proceeding. However, before such thirty 13 (30) day period expires, all testimony, exhibits and transcripts of depositions or 14 other testimony shall be treated as Highly Confidential Material. All portions 15 of deposition transcripts not designated Confidential Material or Highly 16 Confidential Material as provided in paragraphs 4 and 5 shall be deemed not 17 confidential.

18 c. Non-Written Materials: Any non-written Confidential Material or 19 Highly Confidential Material (e.g., videotape, audio tape, computer disk, etc.) 20 may be designated as such by labeling the outside of such non-written material 21 designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.” In the event a 22 Receiving Party generates any “hard copy” transcription or printout from any 23 such designated non-written materials, the person who generates such “hard 24 copy” transcription shall take reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of 25 such materials.

26 7. Inadvertent Disclosure: The inadvertent failure to designate Discovery 27 Material as Confidential or Highly Confidential does not constitute a waiver of such 28 claim and may be remedied by prompt supplemental written notice upon discovery of the inadvertent disclosure, with the effect that such Discovery Material will be subject

1 to the protections of this Order. The Receiving Party shall exercise good faith efforts 2 to ensure that copies it makes of Discovery Material produced to it, and copies made 3 by others who obtained such Discovery Material directly or indirectly from the 4 Receiving Party, include the appropriate confidentiality legend, to the same extent that 5 the Discovery Material has been marked with the appropriate confidentiality legend 6 by the Producing Party.

7 8. Notes of Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material: Any 8 notes, lists, memoranda, indices, compilations prepared or based on an examination of 9 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material, that quote from or paraphrase, 10 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material with such specificity that the 11 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material can be identified, or by 12 reasonable logical extension can be identified, shall be accorded the same status of 13 confidentiality as the underlying Confidential Material or Highly Confidential 14 Material from which they are made and shall be subject to all of the terms of this 15 Protective Order.

16 9. Notice To Non-Parties: Any Party issuing a subpoena to a non-party 17 shall enclose a copy of this Protective Order with a request that, within ten (10) 18 calendar days, the non-party either request the protection of this Protective Order or 19 notify the issuing party that the non-party does not need the protection of this 20 Protective Order or wishes to seek different protection.

21 10. Persons Authorized To Receive Confidential Material: Discovery
22 Material designated “Confidential” may be disclosed, summarized, described, 23 characterized or otherwise communicated or made available in whole or in part only 24 to the following persons:

25 a. The Court, persons employed by the Court who are necessary for the 26 handling of the Litigation, and court reporters transcribing the testimony or 27 argument at a hearing, trial or deposition in this Litigation or any appeal there 28 from;

 b. Counsel of record in this Litigation, as well as paralegals, technical,

1 administrative and clerical employees working under the direct supervision of 2 such counsel;

3 c. Subject to paragraph 12 hereof, experts or consultants assisting any 4 counsel of record in this Litigation, provided such experts and consultants have 5 signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order”
6 attached hereto as Exhibit A;

7 d. Individual named plaintiffs who have a need to know such 8 information for purposes of this Litigation and who have signed the 9 “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached
10 hereto as Exhibit A;

11 e. Officers, directors or employees of parties who have a need to know 12 such information for purposes of this Litigation and who have signed the 13 “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached
14 hereto as Exhibit A;

15 f. Graphics, translation, or design services retained by counsel of record 16 in this Litigation for purposes of this Litigation, provided such services have 17 signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” 18 attached hereto as Exhibit A. A signature by an authorized representative of 19 company the company who confirms that he or she has appropriately advised 20 the relevant employees of the confidentiality obligations in this order and taken 21 reasonable steps to comply thereto shall be sufficient;

22 g. Commercial copy vendors retained by counsel of record in this action 23 for purposes of this Litigation, provided such vendors have signed the 24 “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached
25 hereto as Exhibit A. A signature by an authorized representative of company 26 the company who confirms that he or she has appropriately advised the relevant 27 employees of the confidentiality obligations in this order and taken reasonable 28 steps to comply thereto shall be sufficient;

h. During their depositions, witnesses in the Litigation who agree on the

1 record to maintain the confidentiality of relevant documents or information
2 shown to them or who have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information
3 Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A (except that persons 4 described in sub-paragraph (i) below do not need to sign Exhibit A to be shown 5 Confidential Material in their depositions). In the event of refusal of the witness 6 to execute such confidentiality agreement, such witness shall nevertheless be 7 deemed bound by the terms of this Order; furthermore the party or parties 8 seeking to use such information and the Producing Party will secure from a 9 court having jurisdiction over such witness such order and directions directed 10 specifically to such witness containing such provisions as are consistent with 11 the terms of this Order; and the Producing Party will cooperate fully in the 12 making of any such application;

13 i. Any person indicated by a document marked as Confidential Material 14 to be an author, addressee, or copy recipient of the Confidential Material, or as 15 to whom there has been testimony, whether at deposition or trial, or by 16 declaration or affidavit, that the person was the author or recipient of the 17 Confidential Material; and 18 j. Any other person, only upon order of the Court or upon stipulation of 19 the Producing Party who has signed the “Agreement Concerning Information 20 Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A.

21 11. Persons Authorized To Receive Highly Confidential Material:

22 Except as specifically provided for in this or subsequent Court orders, Highly 23 Confidential Material or its contents shall not be disclosed, summarized, described, or 24 otherwise communicated or made available in whole or in part to any person or entity, 25 directly or indirectly, other than the following:

26 a. The Court, persons employed by the Court who are necessary for the 27 handling of the Litigation, and court reporters transcribing the testimony or 28 argument at a hearing, trial or deposition in this Litigation or any appeal there
from;

1 b. Counsel of record in this Litigation, as well as paralegals, technical,
2 administrative and clerical employees working under the direct supervision of 3 such counsel, provided each has signed the “Agreement Concerning 4 Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A;

5 c. Subject to paragraph 12 hereof, experts or consultants necessary to 6 assist counsel of record in this Litigation, provided such experts and consultants
7 have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective 8 Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A;

9 d. Graphics, translation, or design services retained by counsel for 10 purposes of preparing demonstrative or other exhibits, provided such services
11 have signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective 12 Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A;

13 e. Commercial copy vendors retained by counsel for purposes of this 14 Litigation, provided such vendors have signed the “Agreement Concerning 15 Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A; 16 f. During their depositions, witnesses in the Litigation to whom 17 disclosure is reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Agreement 18 Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as 19 Exhibit A (except that persons described in sub-paragraph (g) below do not 20 need to sign Exhibit A to be shown Highly Confidential Material in their 21 depositions);

22 g. Any person indicated by a document marked Highly Confidential 23 Material to be an author, addressee, or copy recipient of the Highly Confidential 24 Material, or as to whom there has been testimony, whether at deposition or trial 25 or by declaration or affidavit, that the person was the author or recipient of the 26 Highly Confidential Material; and 27 h. Any other person, only upon order of the Court or upon stipulation of 28 the Producing Party, and who has signed the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1 12. Qualification of Outside Experts and Consultants: Neither 2 Confidential nor Highly Confidential Material shall be disclosed to any outside 3 experts or consultants who are current employees of a direct competitor of any of the 4 Toyota entities named in the Litigation. With respect to outside experts or consultants 5 who were employed by a direct competitor of any of the Toyota entities named in the 6 Litigation within one (1) year from the date of this Order, Confidential and Highly 7 Confidential Material may be shared with those experts or consultants only after 8 counsel for the Toyota entities named as defendants in this Litigation are given at least 9 twenty (20) days prior written notice of the identity of the expert or consultant to 10 whom such Confidential or Highly Confidential Material is to be disclosed (including 11 his or her name, address, current job title and the names of any direct competitors by 12 which he has been employed), are afforded an opportunity to object to the disclosure 13 of the Confidential or Highly Confidential Material, and a resolution to any such 14 objection has been reached. Notwithstanding paragraphs 10(c) and 11(c), 15 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material may be provided to experts or 16 consultants only for the purpose of aiding, assisting, or allowing such expert or 17 consultant to prepare a written opinion, to prepare to testify, or to assist counsel for a 18 party in this Litigation.

19 13. Sharing Provision: Except as otherwise provided herein, Confidential 20 Material and Highly Confidential Material may be shared with other attorneys of 21 record in other lawsuits against any of the Toyota entities in the United States of 22 America involving allegations substantially similar to the allegations in the Litigation 23 in which this Protective Order has been entered (“Sharing Attorneys”). Sharing 24 Attorneys shall be granted access to Confidential and Highly Confidential Material 25 only after counsel for the Toyota entities named as defendants in this Litigation are 26 given at least twenty (20) days prior written notice of the identity of the Sharing 27 Attorney(s) to whom such Confidential or Highly Confidential Material is to be 28 disclosed, are afforded an opportunity to object to the disclosure of the Confidential or

1 Highly Confidential Material, and a resolution to any such objection has been reached, 2 and only after Sharing Attorneys have been authorized to receive discovery under 3 relevant MDL procedures. In addition, Sharing Attorneys must adhere to the 4 following conditions:

5 a. Each Sharing Attorney shall sign the “Agreement Concerning 6 Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A and 7 agree to be subjected to the jurisdiction of this Court for enforcement of the 8 Protective Order prior to receiving any Confidential or Highly Confidential 9 Material;

10 b. Each Sharing Attorney shall provide the original or a copy of the 11 executed “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective Order” 12 attached hereto as Exhibit A to the counsel in this Litigation who provided 13 Confidential or Highly Confidential Material to the Sharing Attorney;

14 c. Counsel for all parties to this Litigation shall maintain the originals 15 and/or copies of the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by 16 Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A that are executed by Sharing 17 Attorneys;

18 d. Sharing Attorneys shall only use Confidential and Highly 19 Confidential Materials for purposes of the specific case or cases for which the 20 Sharing Attorney is counsel of record or for purposes related to this Litigation;

21 e. Sharing Attorneys shall not further share Confidential or Highly 22 Confidential Materials with anyone other than the category of persons or 23 entities described in paragraphs 10 or 11, whichever is applicable, for the 24 specific case or cases for which the Sharing Attorney is counsel of record, and 25 only after the persons or entities have executed the “Agreement Concerning 26 Information Covered by Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A.
27 Sharing Attorneys shall not further share Confidential or Highly Confidential 28 Materials with any counsel, person or entity not described above in paragraphs 10 or 11, whichever is applicable.

1 This Sharing Provision does not permit the sharing of Confidential Material and 2 Highly Confidential Material with legal counsel in pending or threatened litigation 3 against any of the Toyota entities outside of the United States of America, regardless 4 of whether such legal counsel can be classified as a consultant or affiliate of any US 5 attorney of record in any legal proceedings against any of the Toyota entities within 6 the United States.

7 14. Restriction on Disclosure in Actions Outside the United States.

8 Neither Confidential nor Highly Confidential Material shall be disclosed, shared, 9 distributed, or otherwise provided in any manner to legal counsel in pending or 10 threatened litigation against any of the Toyota entities outside of the United States 11 through any other provision of this Protective Order, including but not limited to 12 paragraphs 10, 11, 12 and 13, regardless of whether such legal counsel can be 13 classified as a consultant or affiliate of any US attorney of record in any legal 14 proceedings against any of the Toyota entities within the United States.

15 15. Use of Discovery Material: Discovery Material containing Confidential

16 and/or Highly Confidential Material shall be used solely for purposes of the 17 Litigation, including any appeal and retrial. Any person or entity in possession of 18 Discovery Material designated Confidential or Highly Confidential (defined below) 19 shall maintain those materials in accordance with Paragraph 18 below.

20 16. Agreement Must Be Signed Prior To Disclosure. Each person to 21 whom Confidential or Highly Confidential Material may be disclosed that is also 22 required to sign the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by Protective 23 Order” (attached hereto as Exhibit A) pursuant to Paragraphs 10(c)-10(h), 10(j), 24 11(b)-11(f), and 11(h) shall do so prior to the time such Material is disclosed to him or 25 her.

26 17. Exclusion of Individuals From Depositions: Counsel for any 27 Producing Party shall have the right to exclude from depositions any person who is 28 not authorized by this Order to receive documents or information designated

1 Confidential or Highly Confidential, but only during periods of examination or 2 testimony directed to or comprising information that is Confidential or Highly 3 Confidential.

4 18. Storage Of Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material:

5 The recipient of any Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material that is 6 provided under this Protective Order shall maintain such information in a reasonably 7 secure and safe manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 8 under this Order.

9 19. Filing of Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material.

10 Without written permission from the Producing Party or a court order, a party may not 11 file in the public record in this action any Confidential Material or Highly 12 Confidential Material. The parties shall comply with Local Rule 79-5 when seeking 13 to file Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material under seal.

14 The party desiring to place any Confidential Material or Highly Confidential 15 Material before the Court shall lodge the information in a sealed envelope along with 16 an application to file the papers or the portion thereof containing Confidential Material 17 or Highly Confidential Material under seal and a copy of a Proposed Order Sealing 18 Documents. Said envelope shall be endorsed with the title of the Litigation, an 19 indication of the nature of the contents of such sealed envelope, the identity of the 20 party filing the materials, the phrase “Confidential Material” or “Highly Confidential 21 Material,” and a statement substantially in the following form:

22 THIS ENVELOPE CONTAINS MATERIALS SUBJECT TO A 23 PROTECTIVE ORDER ENTERED IN THIS LITIGATION. IT IS NOT TO 24 BE OPENED NOR ARE ITS CONTENTS TO BE DISPLAYED, 25 REVEALED, OR MADE PULBIC, EXCEPT BY ORDER OF THE COURT.
26 UNLESS THE COURT ORDERS THAT IT NOT BE FILED, IT SHALL BE 27 FILED UNDER SEAL.

28 Additionally, within seven (7) days from the date that the papers (or portions thereof) were filed under seal consistent with the above procedures, the party who filed the

1 papers under seal also shall file in the public record a version of the papers that has 2 been redacted to omit the Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material (or 3 any references thereto).

4 The parties shall also comply with Local Rule 79-5.4 with respect to the 5 appropriate treatment of personal identifier information in connection with any filing 6 with the Court.

7 20. No Prejudice: Agreeing to be bound by this Protective Order, agreeing 8 to and/or producing or receiving Confidential Material or Highly Confidential 9 Material or otherwise complying with the terms of this Order shall not:

10 a. Prejudice in any way the rights of the parties to object to the 11 production of documents they consider not subject to discovery, or operate as 12 an admission by any party that the restrictions and procedures set forth herein 13 constitute adequate protection for any particular information deemed by any 14 party to be Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material;

15 b. Prejudice in any way the rights of any party to object to the 16 authenticity or admissibility into evidence of any document, testimony or other 17 evidence subject to this Order;

18 c. Prejudice in any way the rights of a party to seek a determination by 19 the Court whether any Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material 20 should be subject to the terms of this Order;

21 d. Prejudice in any way the rights of a party to petition the Court for a 22 protective order relating to any purportedly confidential information; or 23 e. Prevent a Disclosing Party from authorizing disclosure of its own 24 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material to any party.

25 21. Challenging Designation of Materials: A party shall not be obligated 26 to challenge the propriety of a Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material 27 designation at the time made, and failure to do so shall not preclude a subsequent 28 challenge thereto during the pendency of this Litigation.

a. Challenge: The Receiving Party may challenge the propriety of a

1 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material designation by providing 2 to Producing Party a writing which briefly: (i) identifies with reasonable 3 particularity the documents and/or information which are the subject of the 4 challenge; and (ii) describes the basic legal or factual grounds for the challenge.

5 b. Meet and Confer and Motion: Once a challenge is made, the 6 Producing Party will bear the burden of initiating and conducting a sufficient 7 meet and confer (per Local Rule 37-1); and, if necessary, Producing Party will 8 bear the burdens of proof and persuasion in moving for a Protective Order (per 9 Local Rule 37-2) to uphold the challenged Confidential Material or Highly 10 Confidential Material designation(s). If the Producing Party does not initiate 11 the discovery motion process under Local Rule 37 within ninety (90) days of a 12 challenge, the subject Confidential Material designation or Highly Confidential 13 Material designation is effectively withdrawn and the subject documents and 14 material may be used for all purposes in this Litigation. The Receiving Party 15 must make de-designation requests in good faith. Mass, indiscriminate, or 16 routinized requests for de-designation are prohibited.

17 c. Status of Challenged Designation Pending Judicial 18 Determination: Until the court rules on the timely filed Motion for Protective 19 Order, all parties shall continue to afford the material in question the level of 20 protection to which it is entitled under the Producing Party's designation.

21 22. No Application to Public or Otherwise Available Information: This 22 Order shall not limit or restrict a Receiving Party's use of information that the 23 Receiving Party can demonstrate: (i) was lawfully in the Receiving Party's 24 possession prior to such information being designated as protected material in the 25 Litigation and that the Receiving Party is not otherwise obligated to treat as 26 confidential; (ii) was obtained without any benefit or use of protected material from a 27 third party having the right to disclose such information to the Receiving Party 28 without restriction or obligation of confidentiality; (iii) was independently developed by it after the time of disclosure by personnel who did not have access to the 1 Producing Party’s protected material; or (iv) has been published to the general public.

2 If the Receiving Party believes that the Disclosing Party has designated information 3 that is covered by any of the preceding categories as Confidential Material or Highly 4 Confidential Material, the Receiving Party shall challenge the propriety of such 5 designation using the procedure outlined in paragraph 20 above. Any challenged 6 designation remains in force until the propriety of such designation has been decided 7 as outlined above.

8 23. No Waiver of Privilege: Disclosure (including production) of 9 information that a Party or non-party later claims should not have been disclosed 10 because of a privilege, including, but not limited to, the attorney-client privilege or 11 work product doctrine (“Privileged Information”), shall not constitute a waiver of, or 12 estoppel as to , any claim of attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product, or other 13 ground for withholding production as to which the Producing Party would be entitled 14 in the litigation or any other federal or state proceeding. This Order is intended to 15 provide the full protection afforded by Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d), providing 16 that “A Federal court may order that the privilege or protection is not waived by 17 disclosure connected with the litigation pending before the court – in which event the 18 disclosure also is not a waiver in any other Federal or State proceeding.” Upon 19 discovery by a Producing Party (or upon receipt of notice from another Party) that 20 he/she/it may have produced Privileged Information, the Producing Party shall, within 21 ten (10) days of such discovery, request the return of such information in writing by 22 indentifying the Privileged Information and stating the basis on which the Privileged 23 Information should be withheld from production. After being notified, all other 24 Parties must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the Privileged Information and any 25 copies he/she/it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is 26 resolved; and must take reasonable steps to retrieve the Privileged Information if 27 he/she/it disclosed the Privileged Information before being notified. If any Party 28 disputes the privilege claim (“Objecting Party”), that Objecting Party shall notify the Producing Party of the dispute and the basis therefore in writing within thirty (30)

1 days of receipt of the request for the return of the Privileged Information. The Parties 2 thereafter shall meet and confer in good faith regarding the disputed claim within 3 thirty (30) days. In the event that the Parties do not resolve their dispute, either Party
4 may bring a motion for a determination of whether a privilege applies. If such a 5 motion is made, the Producing Party shall submit to the Court for in camera review 6 under seal a copy of the disputed information in connection with its motion papers.
7 The submission to the Court shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege or 8 protection. The Producing Party must preserve the information claimed to be 9 privileged or otherwise protected until the claim is resolved.

10 Except as expressly set forth herein, nothing in this provision shall limit the 11 bases on which the Objecting Party may challenge the assertion of any privilege or 12 protection by the Producing Party. In addition, nothing in this provision shall permit 13 the Producing Party to seek to withhold or “claw back” a previously-produced 14 document in this Litigation if that document was the subject of deposition testimony 15 in this Litigation and the Producing Party did not provide notice, as described above in 16 paragraph 6(b), within thirty (30) days after the deposition that the document was 17 privileged or protected and should be returned.

18 24. Additional Parties or Attorneys: In the event additional parties join or 19 intervene in this action, the newly joined party(ies) shall not have access to 20 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material until its counsel has executed 21 and, at the request of any party, filed with the Court its agreement to be fully bound by 22 this Order. If any additional attorneys make appearances in this Litigation, those 23 attorneys shall not have access to Confidential Material or Highly Confidential 24 Material until they execute the “Agreement Concerning Information Covered by 25 Protective Order” attached hereto as Exhibit A.

26 25. Protective Order Remains In Force: This Protective Order shall 27 remain in force and effect until modified, superseded, or terminated by consent of the 28 parties or by order of the Court made upon reasonable written notice. Unless otherwise ordered, or agreed upon by the parties, this Protective Order shall survive

1 the termination of this action. The Court retains jurisdiction even after termination of 2 this action to enforce this Protective Order and to make such amendments, 3 modifications, deletions and additions to this Protective Order as the Court may from 4 time to time deem appropriate.

5 26. No Prejudice For Further Relief: This Protective Order is without 6 prejudice to the right of any party to seek other or further relief from the Court.

7 27. No Waiver of Grounds For Producing Material: This Protective 8 Order shall not be construed as waiving any right to assert a claim of privilege, 9 relevance, overbreadth, burdensomeness or other grounds for not producing material 10 called for, and access to such material shall be only as otherwise provided by the 11 discovery rules and other applicable laws.

12 28. Conclusion of Litigation: Within ninety (90) days after receiving notice 13 of the entry of an order, judgment or decree finally disposing of this Litigation, all 14 persons having received Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material shall 15 either return such material and all copies thereof to counsel for the Producing Party, or 16 destroy all such Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material and, in either 17 case, certify that fact to counsel for the Producing Party. Counsel of record shall 18 make arrangements for the return of Confidential Material or Highly Confidential 19 Material that counsel of record provided to any persons or entities in paragraphs 11 20 and 12, except the Court, court personnel and court reporters. Outside counsel of 21 record for the parties shall be entitled to retain court papers, depositions, trial 22 transcripts and attorney work product, provided that such outside counsel of record 23 shall not disclose Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material to any person 24 except pursuant to a court order or agreement with the party that produced the 25 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material. All material returned to the 26 parties or their counsel by the Court shall likewise be disposed of in accordance with 27 this paragraph.

28 29. No Loss of Confidential or Highly Confidential Status By Use In Litigation or Appeal: In the event that any Confidential or Highly Confidential

1 Material is used in any court proceeding in this Litigation or any appeal therefrom, 2 such Confidential or Highly Confidential Material shall not lose its status as 3 Confidential or Highly Confidential through such use. Counsel shall comply with all 4 applicable local rules and shall confer on such procedures that are necessary to protect 5 the confidentiality of any documents, information and transcripts used in the course of 6 any court proceedings, including petitioning the Court to close the court room.

7 30. Protected Material Subpoenaed or Ordered Produced in Other 8 Actions: If any person receiving documents covered by this Order (the “Receiver”) is 9 served with a subpoena, order, interrogatory, or document or civil investigative 10 demand (collectively, a “Demand”) issued in any other action, investigation, or 11 proceeding, and such Demand seeks Discovery Material that was produced or 12 designated as Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material by someone other 13 than the Receiver, the Receiver shall give prompt written notice by hand or facsimile 14 transmission within ten (10) business days of receipt of such Demand to the person, 15 party, or third party who produced or designated the material as Confidential Material 16 or Highly Confidential Material, and shall object to the production of such materials 17 on the grounds of the existence of this Order. The burden of opposing the enforcement 18 of the Demand shall fall upon the party who produced or designated the material as 19 Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material. Unless the person, party, or 20 third party who produced or designated the Confidential Material or Highly 21 Confidential Material obtains an order directing that the Demand not be complied 22 with, and serves such order upon the Receiver prior to production pursuant to the 23 Demand, the Receiver shall be permitted to produce documents responsive to the 24 Demand on the Demand response date. Compliance by the Receiver with any order 25 directing production pursuant to the Demand of any Confidential Material or Highly 26 Confidential Material shall not constitute a violation of this Order. Nothing in this 27 Order shall be construed as authorizing a party to disobey a lawful subpoena issued in 28 another action.

31. Advice Based on Discovery Material Allowed: Nothing in this

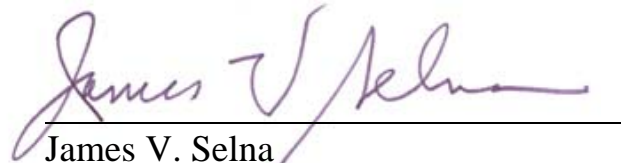

1 Protective Order shall bar or otherwise restrict any attorney from rendering advice to 2 his client with respect to this litigation and, in the course of rendering advice, referring 3 to or relying generally on the examination of Confidential Material or Highly 4 Confidential Material; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and in 5 otherwise communicating with his client, the attorney shall not disclose the contents 6 of any Confidential Material or Highly Confidential Material produced by another 7 party if that disclosure would be contrary to the terms of this Protective Order.

8 32. Redaction Allowed: Any Producing Party may redact from the 9 documents and things it produced matter that the Producing Party claims is subject to 10 attorney-client privilege, work product immunity, a legal prohibition against 11 disclosure, or any other privilege or immunity. The Producing Party shall mark each 12 thing where matter has been redacted with a legend stating “REDACTED,” as 13 appropriate, or a comparable notice. Where a document consists of more than one 14 page, at least each page on which information has been redacted shall be so marked.
15 The Producing Party shall preserve an unredacted version of each such document.

16 33. Violations of Protective Order: In the event that any person or party 17 should violate the terms of this Protective Order, the aggrieved Disclosing Party 18 should apply to the Court obtain relief against any such person or party violating or 19 threatening to violate any of the terms of this Protective Order. In the event that the 20 aggrieved Disclosing Party seeks injunctive relief, it must petition the District Judge 21 for such relief, which may be granted at the sole discretion of the District Judge. The 22 parties and any other person subject to the terms of this Protective Order agree that 23 this Court shall retain jurisdiction over it and them for the purpose of enforcing this 24 Protective Order.

13)

14 I, _____, hereby acknowledge that I
15 have received a copy of the Stipulated Protective Order entered in this action (Case 16 No. 8:10ML2151 JVS (FMOx) by the United States District Court for the Central 17 District of California, Southern Division (hereinafter, “the Protective Order”).

18 I have either read the Protective Order or have had the terms of the Protective 19 Order explained to me by my attorney.

20 I understand the terms of the Protective Order and agree to comply with and to 21 be bound by such terms.

22 If I receive documents or information designated as Confidential Material or 23 Highly Confidential Material, (as those terms are defined in the Protective Order), I 24 understand that such information is provided to me pursuant to the terms and 25 restrictions of the Protective Order.

26 I agree to hold in confidence and not further disclose or use for any purpose 27 (other than is permitted by the Protective Order) any information disclosed to me 28 pursuant to the terms of the Protective Order.

If I am a Sharing Attorney as defined in paragraph 13 of the Protective Order, I recognize and agree that coordination of discovery is necessary to promote judicial economy and to avoid unnecessary costs and delays to the parties to this action (Case

1 No. 8:10ML2151 JVS (FMOx), as well as to the parties to the action(s) in which I
2 serve as counsel. Accordingly, I agree to use my best efforts to coordinate discovery 3 in the action(s) in which I serve as an attorney of record with this action.

4 I hereby submit myself to the jurisdiction of the United States District Court for 5 the Central District of California for resolution of any matters pertaining to the 6 Protective Order.
